

ON THE NUMBER OF K-OPT MOVES IN THE LKH FOR THE TSP

A. G. YANEF

ABSTRACT. Using a simple frame of logic, specificationally the TSP is transformed to a Hamiltonian Path Problem. A brief consideration of the Lin-Kernighan heuristic for the TSP indirectly provides an answer to Godel's question 'How long is a proof?', by treating 'proving' as an optimisation problem...

Silly notion. Out of context.